(b) what is the progress in respect of software for transliterating from Gurmukhi to Persian script and the vice-versa since until then, the job remains half done?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (SU. THIRUNAVUKKARASAR): (a) No change in the existing statutes is required for the production of software.

(b) The software for transliteration from Gurmukhi to Shahmukhi (Persian Script) is ready. In view of the technical problems encountered, it is not possible to indicate a definite time frame for the development of the reverse transliteration software from Shahmukhi (Persian Script) to Gurmukhi.

Computers in post offices in Rajasthan

1192. SHRI AIMADUDDIN AHMAD KHAN (DURRU): Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY be pleased to state:

(a) the names of post offices where computers have not yet been provided for computerized registrations in Rajasthan;

(b) the reason therefor; and

(c) the measures contemplated by Government in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (SHRI SU. THIRUNAVUKKARASAR): (a) There are 1450 Departmental Post Offices (Head Offices and Sub Offices) in Rajasthan Postal Circle. Out of 1450 Post Offices 1394 Post Offices have not yet been provided with computers for computerised registrations in Rajasthan. The names of Post Offices where computers have not yet been provided for computerised registrations in Rajasthan are indicated in the Annexure. [see appendix 199, Annexure No. 6]

(b) There are over 26000 departmental Post Offices in the country. Considering the limited resources that were available in the past, it was not possible to computerize all Post Offices, Selected Post Offices were taken up for computerization in all States.

(c) During the Tenth Plan Period, the Department proposed to computerize and network all the Head Post Offices and major Sub Post Offices in the country, including those in Rajasthan, subject to required clearances and availability of funds.
